

Save costs by utilizing SafetyRail 2000's patented, positive locking - infinite angle mounting feature. There is no need to have full perimeter protection (unless required) by using the mounting capabilities for the rails. This will enable you to cut corners and create a fall protection and barricade enclosure.